Incident Summary

On January 17th, 2019 at approximately 1056 hours, Officers Paul Resch and Kenny Viec were working traffic enforcement together in a two-officer patrol vehicle. Officer Resch was the driver of the patrol vehicle. Officer Resch observed a male, later identified as Jason Gonzalez- Warren, walking on Orchard Loop Lane, carrying what appeared to be a firearm in his hand. Gonzalez- Warren looked at the officer's direction and began to run away from officers. Officer Resch drove the patrol vehicle up towards Gonzalez- Warren to contact him. While Gonzalez- Warren back was facing away from officers, his hands were moving about the front of his body, out of Officer Resch and Viec's line of sight. Gonzalez- Warren quickly turned around to face officers and had a BBQ lighter in his hand. The BBQ lighter had a black cylinder wand, blue handle and black trigger for the igniter. Officer Resch fired one round from his duty firearm, grazing the right chest of Gonzalez- Warren. Gonzalez- Warren dropped the lighter and was handcuffed by Officer Resch without further incident. Gonzalez- Warren was later treated at Kaiser South Hospital for the bullet graze and booked into the jail for 69 PC (resisting/ assaulting an officer) and a no-bail warrant out of Concord PD for [redacted]
